DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group II, Species 1 and Species a in the reply filed on 6/8/06 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no serious burden in search. This is not found persuasive because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement. Furthermore, these inventions are distinct for the reasons given in the restriction requirement and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and/or have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "Disclosed is an . . . " in line 1.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 3 is objected to as being a substantial duplicate of claim 2. Claim 2 and claim 3 are essentially duplicates of one another or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording. It is improper to have two claims which contain the same limitations, in the same application as one claim would be a substantial duplicate of the other claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 3729

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mimura et al (US 6,779,259).

Mimura discloses in claims 1-10, flow charts and Figs. 2A-2B the claimed invention of detecting when the components are empty, switching to another supply means and replenishing the depleted supply means while the mounting head mount electronic components using another supply means. It is inherent that means as noted in claims are provided in the prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 4-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mimura et al (US 6,779,259) in view of Kitamura et al (US 5,740,604).

Mimura teaches the invention as described with respect to claims 2-3 above, except for a component rack.

Kitamura discloses a component rack (17).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Mimura by providing a component rack, as taught by Kitamura, for the purpose of increasing mounting electronic components on PCB without stopping.

Conclusion

8. Please provide reference numerals (either in parentheses next to the claimed limitation or in a table format with one column listing the claimed limitation and another column listing corresponding reference numerals in the remark section of the response to the Office Action) to all the claimed limitations as well as support in the disclosure for better clarity (optional). Applicants are duly reminded that a full and proper response to this Office Action that includes any amendment to the claims and specification of the application as originally filed requires that the applicant point out the support for any amendment made to the disclosure, including the claims. See 37 CFR 1.111 and MPEP 2163.06.
